

Where
neighbours
become family members !

Brought to you by

Where you celebrate all the colours of life !

Where you discover an entire neighbourhood coming together to celebrate. Where a celebration is just another excuse to spend more time together. So let the celebrations continue ...

Where moments of happiness turns into life long memories !

Marriages, birthdays, anniversaries... Where you celebrate the special moments of your life and create new footprints of memories.

Where you begin your second innings in style !

Wear that orange shirt and blue denim that you've always wanted to. Engage in an exciting game of chess on a Thursday afternoon. Stay connected with WhatsApp and don't miss the latest you tube sensation. There is no boss in your life, anymore. Hope your wife is not reading this.

Where you can disown the urban heritage of measuring your life in square feet!

Where you can walk barefoot on morning grass, drenched with drops of dew (extremely beneficial for diabetic patients). Where you need not travel miles, just to walk a mile loaded with fresh air. More green, more light, more space with more sky. Add happiness in every square feet.

my own city...

It's my life, it's my choice, it's my family, it's my friends, it's my city.
