

Risk Intelligence and Solutions Ecosystem

Innovative, industry-wide risk management solutions created for and in collaboration with financial institutions

CRISIL

An S&P Global Company

RISE is a unique collaborative ecosystem, which allows financial institutions to enhance risk management practices. It does this by developing best practices and centralising delivery, thereby reducing duplication and strengthening risk management standards.

RISE enables financial institutions to work with their peers, designing and consuming a range of innovative solutions across the Risk Management and Compliance value chain.

RISE aims to continuously deliver best-in-class products and solutions focusing on three key ecosystem components:

Data

Pooling, centralisation and optimisation, and industry benchmarking

Models

Automated modelling tools leveraging domain and technical expertise

Platforms and analytics

Automated advanced processes leveraging innovative technologies and analytics

Value drivers

Cost savings through mutualisation and avoidance of duplication

Ability to demonstrate thought leadership to the industry and regulators

Insights into best-in-class industry practices and benchmarks

Peer networking on common industry priorities

Best-in-class product suite

Designed in conjunction with financial institutions to meet their industry needs.

Scenario Expansion Manager (SEM)

A centralised one-stop analytical platform providing modelling solutions for regulatory and internal stress testing

Value drivers

Streamlined expansion platform with auditable workflows, reducing operational risk and enhancing cost savings

Low Default Portfolios (LDP)

A data consortium that pools default data across banks to enable development of robust probability of default models

A rich, global default pool with granular transparency into obligor names and default classification

Strategic Comparison and Advisory Narrative (SCAN)

A series of metrics-driven studies with a significant advisory component to provide actionable intelligence about best-in-class industry practices

Tangible insights into the current practices of peers, cost structures, operating models and future roadmaps

Climate Risk

A solution that aids financial institutions in the identification, measurement, and stress testing of the inherent climate risks in their portfolios

Accelerated readiness for regulatory compliance, tangible benchmarks, and cost mutualisation

Innovative business model

Facilitates multilateral engagement, identifies industry priorities, and builds mutualised solutions

Industry forums

- Roundtables to allow financial institutions to discuss common industry challenges
- Subject matter insights leveraging domain expertise

Product design

- Joint product design incorporating industry best practices
- Mutualised solutions that deliver value-add across multiple regulatory jurisdictions

Development and testing

- RISE invests in the product build
- Design input from financial institutions ensures products are fit for purpose
- Proof of concepts for informed buying decisions
