

General nature of compensation

Crisil ESG Ratings & Analytics Ltd (Crisil ESG Ratings) receives compensation from subscribers to access ratings, data, and reports and related research, on one or multiple entities covered by Crisil ESG Ratings. Subscribers may include banks, asset management companies, financial institutions, insurance companies, foreign institutional investors, pension funds as well as corporates.

Standardisation of subscription fee arrangements – Fee structures are summarized in fee schedules which are communicated and finalised with subscribers. Crisil ESG Ratings charges a subscription fee from each subscriber. Precise fee amounts are determined by various factors including, but not limited to, the number of rated entities subscribed to along with nature of subscription (data/ratings/reports/related research or a combination of the same including any customization/prioritization request). Crisil ESG Ratings may also enter into specific fee arrangements for volume subscribers.

Crisil ESG Ratings follows a subscribers-pay model wherein ESG ratings are solicited by the Subscribers.